Be rather in the trumpets mouth, --anon Among the winds at large--that all may hearken! Although, before the crystal heavens darken, I watch and dote upon the silver lakes Pictured in western cloudiness, that takes The semblance of gold rocks and bright gold sands, Islands, and creeks, and amber-fretted strands With horses prancing oer them, palaces And towers of amethyst, --would I so tease My pleasant days, because I could not mount Into those regions The Morphean fount Of that fine element that visions, dreams, And fitful whims of sleep are made of, streams Into its airy channels with so subtle, So thin a breathing, not the spiders shuttle, Circled a million times within the space Of a swallows nest-door, could delay a trace, A tinting of its quality: how light Must dreams themselves be; seeing theyre more slight Than the mere nothing that engenders them! Then wherefore sully the entrusted gem Of high and noble life with thoughts so sick Why pierce high-fronted honour to the quick For nothing but a dream Hereat the youth Lookd up: a conflicting of shame and ruth Was in his plaited brow: yet his eyelids Widend a little, as when Zephyr bids A little breeze to creep between the fans Of careless butterflies: amid his pains He seemd to taste a drop of manna-dew, Full palatable; and a colour grew Upon his cheek, while thus he lifeful spake. Peona! ever have I longd to slake My thirst...
