Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: . . . the commercial clubs is another; imperfection in the knowledge of keeping a first class set of books is Bigo a great hindrance. The lack of confidence in each other is the greatest hindrance. A dry gtv-ds merchant writes: I was burn in Lowndes County, Alabama, Jnae loth, 18C7. I left there in 1880 and have been a citizen of Montgomery ever since. I have worked on a farm, in a saw-mill, and on a rail-road previous to engaging in my present business. I was educated in the common schools of Lowndes and at a private night school since settling in Montgomery. After working for several years in the dry goods business with a Mr. J. J. Levy, I felt that there was a good opening for colored men along that line: so I left him and rented a small store on one of the principal streets. After paying the first monts rent in advance, and giving notes for the balance I found that I had spent one-third of my capital. Thebalancewentforgoods. My success has been all that could be expected. The whites regard me just as they do any other business men, as far as I am able to judge. The Negro business man having once gained the confidence of the people will obtain patronage in direct proportion to his business ability. A successful lumber merchant writes: I was born in Monmouth Co. , N. J. , in 1862, of parents in extremely humble circumstances. I...
